

you & your family

providing you & your family with the legal help you need!

Everyone will need legal help at some stage. You may want to sell your home or you may want to make/review a will. You may want to consider care arrangements for yourself or a relative, preserve and protect your assets, or plan for your family's future - there are a million reasons why you may want or need to consult a solicitor.

At Latimer Hinks we have a team of experienced legal professionals who will provide you with help and assistance. Our team includes members of recognised specialist practice organisations e.g. Solicitors for the Elderly and the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.

Our team possesses high levels of expertise - levels normally associated with city-based law firms. You will find us approachable, knowledgeable and supportive. Our objective is to deal with matters quickly and efficiently and to provide clear, concise and practical advice.

we can help you with:

- Wills, probates/estates, trusts and tax planning.
- Elderly care issues & retirement planning
- Buying or selling your home
- Financial problems and dispute resolution

memberships:

society of trust & estate practitioners (STEP)

Full members of STEP are the most experienced and senior practitioners in the field of trusts and estates. TEP is a hallmark of quality. Anne Elliott, Andrew Way & Elizabeth Armstrong are members (TEP). Natalie Palmer, Gillian Ibbotson & Nadine Sweeney are student members of STEP.
www.step.org

solicitors for the elderly

Committed to providing and promoting robust, comprehensive and independent advice for older and vulnerable people, their family and carers. Anne Elliott, Andrew Way, Natalie Palmer, Helen Thomas, Gillian Ibbotson & Nadine Sweeney are all members.
www.solicitorsfortheelderly.com

chartered institute of taxation (CIOT)

CIOT is the leading body in the UK for tax professionals. CIOT is nationally recognised as the gold standard of UK tax education. Elizabeth Armstrong is a student member of CIOT

comments from the Legal 500

- the "Who's Who" of the Law

personal tax, trusts and probate

Anne Elliott recently assisted on the administration of an estate worth £3.9M involving complex family matters and farming, business & IHT issues

comments from Chambers UK

- an annual publication ranking solicitors and barristers

Anne Elliott is "extremely thorough and very knowledgeable," according to sources. She is commended for her advice on succession planning.