

profile julie porter

Julie has been a valuable member of the team in the Private Client Department at Latimer Hinks for almost ten years. Originally working as secretary and PA to Andrew Way she has now taken the opportunity to study to qualify as a Legal Executive. The knowledge and practical experience Julie has gained over the years is proving invaluable in relation to her studies.

“ I particularly enjoy helping clients make Wills. No one likes to think about the end of their life and the issues death involves but it is important particularly if you are keen to ensure that your family is not divided on matters of inheritance. Making a Will and keeping it updated is vital if you want to do your best to ensure that your assets pass to your loved ones as you wish. ”
